Zpocalypse is a competitive-cooperative zombie survival game set in a post-apocalyptic wasteland. Two to four players compete to be the best squad of survivors after spending one to four days in the nuclear zombified wasteland. Start in a fallout shelter which can lead out to several base locations, or even through the sewers. Scavenge for food and supplies, and expand the transformable board as you explore. Then, feed your survivors and add their skills to your squad board. As night falls, build fortifications and zombie traps around your base. Each night you’ll draw a unique event card and let the zombie slaying begin! Combat is an adrenaline rush of running across the board blasting and slashing at zombies before they consume you. Every fortification built, zombie killed, and survivor saved earns you victory points which determine the ultimate winner. Work together or fight for your own as you try to survive in a world torn apart from the walking dead!

Selling Points:
- Set in a post-nuclear zombie apocalypse
- Combines elements of co-op and competitive plays
- With modular tiles, the board is different each time you play.
- Elements of a tower defense game, wrapped with tactical combat
- Instead of 1 survivor, you control a squad, this allows for the thematic death of a survivor, while the player may continue playing
- With different scenarios, there are many ways to play!

Target Market:
- Players of other tabletop miniatures and roleplaying games
- Fans of Zombie-themed humor and horror media
- Ages 14+

Standing apart from the fray is the Z-team, a special-ops group.
